Because attorneys are duty-bound to honor client confidentiality, Maryland Office of the Public Defender attorneys generally do not provide case-specific information to members of the media. Additionally, protection of client interests may prevent an attorney from discussing information that is in the public record.

The Office may provide attorney statements and responds to most non-case-specific media inquiries.

Please contact
OPD Communications Director,
Kimberlee Schultz,

for more information.

The mission of the Office of the Public Defender (OPD) is to provide superior legal representation to indigent defendants in the State of Maryland by safeguarding fundamental individual rights and ensuring access to the guaranteed protections afforded by the United States Constitution, the Bill of Rights, the Maryland Constitution and Declaration of Rights, and the laws of Maryland.
